

LES MOTELS

LES MOTELS are a Psych Fuzz Rock band from Treviso, Italy, formed in 2019.

Blending fuzz-soaked guitars, obsessive grooves and hypnotic psychedelic textures, the four-piece creates raw, uncompromising songs in English and French.

Drawing inspiration from The Brian Jonestown Massacre, The Black Angels, The Jesus and Mary Chain and Ty Segall, the band crafts songs suspended between repetition, tension and distortion, balancing psychedelic atmospheres with relentless rhythmic drive.

RELEASES

Their releases include the EPs Chiens de Dieu (2022) and Death Box (2026), along with the live album Live at The Hours (2026). They are currently working on their debut full-length album.

AWARDS

In 2026 LES MOTELS won the Jury Award at Back! Music Festival, recognizing the band's artistic identity and live performance.
